Seven Oaks presents:

A Dressage Extravaganza

one Sunday each month, April through September

AND OUR CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW in October

see the "shows" page of our website for exact dates each year

Join your fellow horse-lovers for a day of fun with a dressage theme. We encourage all breeds, all types of tack, all ages and all skill levels to come and ride a dressage test in a safe and enthusiastic environment. A wonderful opportunity for young horses, riders new to showing or pairs new to dressage.

Classes offered: USDF Intro through FEI, modified dressage, lead-line, western dressage, eventing tests, gaited tests

Class information: Readers allowed. Tests will be judged with consideration for the breed of the horse and the type of tack. For awards purposes, classes may be grouped by level, age of rider or horse, breed of horse, type of tack, or any other useful category.

Ribbons and prizes: Ribbons through 5th place, prizes for 1st place. High points awarded at each show, "judge's choice" awards.

Tack and attire: ASTM certified helmets and safe riding footwear required. Other dress should be appropriate to riding style. Coats and braiding optional.

Fees: $20 office fee per entry, $35 per class, $5 cdfa fee

Closing date: the Wednesday before each show. Late and same-day entries will be permitted with no extra charge if space allows.

Stabling: day stalls and overnight stalls available for $40. Stabling is limited, call for availability.

Food: potluck offered at lunch time. If you would like to participate, please bring something to share.

Dogs: dogs permitted on leash, far from horses, only if well-behaved.

Location & barn notes: Rancho Viejo, 145 Ansel Lane, Portola Valley, CA 94028

Drive very slowly on our road—no more than 10 miles per hour!
